HEAR IT ON THE GRAPEVINE

The Adam Chamber Music Festival's 'Cello Woman' has become a familiar image to concert-goers in Nelson and nationally.

The cello model has changed her dress for each Festival. In 2003 the pattern was red roses, in 2005 the Koru, in 2009 the blue waves of the sea, and for the 2011 Festival it will celebrate the 'Top of the South' wine industry with a design of vines intertwined with bunches of luscious grapes. As Festival details are confirmed, up-to-date information will be posted on www.music.org.nz

For the first time, the Adam Chamber Music Festival is presenting an event outside its biennial Festival. There will be a Gala Fundraising Concert and Dinner at The Boathouse on Wakefield Quay on 16 February 2010 at 7.00pm. This will be a full evening package of pre-dinner drink, three-course gourmet dinner with wine, and performances by the New Zealand String Quartet. The NZSQ will play music by Schubert, Beethoven, Debussy, Elgar and Gershwin and its members will be donating their performances to this fund-raiser.

Tickets at $115 are available from:
Everyman Records, Hardy Street Tel (03) 548 3083

The 11th Adam Chamber Music Festival in February 2011 is supported by the Adam Foundation and Nelson City Council.
